Intermediate Line Dance

I learned my first line dance about twenty years ago and loved it immediately. I taught for awhile in a nightclub in Fresno before breaking my toe and quitting for ten years. I have been back line dancing for about eight years and teaching for about four of those years here at CARD and previously in a nightclub in Chico. I love the way dancing makes me feel and enjoy sharing that experience with others. I have been fortunate to have been part of a competitive dance team and have choreographed several line
